

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Summary

The feedback received was constructive and showed a genuine interest in improving educational quality and inclusivity.

There is trust in educators; however, the District should continue to find opportunities to deepen support systems, equity efforts and future readiness of students.

COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Conclusion

The feedback received has provided the District with a valuable foundation for informed community-centred decision making.

We appreciate that we received responses across all groups including parents, guardians, staff, students and community rightsholders.

